

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF DELAWARE

COMMODITY FUTURES TRADING COMMISSION,

Plaintiff,

v.

FIRST STATE DEPOSITORY COMPANY, LLC, ARGENT ASSET GROUP LLC, AND
ROBERT LEROY HIGGINS,

Defendants.

Case No. 22 - 1266

~~PROPOSED~~ ORDER GRANTING PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR AN EX PARTE
STATUTORY RESTRAINING ORDER, APPOINTMENT OF A TEMPORARY
RECEIVER, AND OTHER EQUITABLE RELIEF

Plaintiff Commodity Futures Trading Commission ("Commission") has filed a Complaint for Injunctive Relief, Civil Monetary Penalties, Restitution, and Other Equitable Relief and moved, pursuant to 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1(a) of the Commodity Exchange Act ("Act"), and in accordance with Rule 65 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure ("Rule 65"), for an ex parte Statutory Restraining Order freezing assets, allowing inspection of records, appointing a Temporary Receiver, and granting expedited discovery. The Court has considered the pleadings, declarations, exhibits, and memorandum filed in support of the Commission's motion, and finds that:

1. This Court has jurisdiction over this action under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (codifying federal question jurisdiction) and 28 U.S.C. § 1345 (providing that U.S. district courts have original jurisdiction over civil actions commenced by the United States or by any agency expressly authorized to sue by Act of Congress). 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1(a) authorizes the Commission to seek injunctive relief against any person whenever it shall appear that such person has engaged, is engaging, or is about to engage in any act or practice that violates any provision of the Act or any rule, regulation, or order promulgated thereunder.

2. Venue lies properly within this District pursuant to 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1(e).

3. The Commission has made a proper prima facie showing that from at least January 2014 through the present (the “Relevant Period”), Defendants First State Depository Company, LLC (“FSD”), Argent Asset Group LLC (“Argent”), and Robert Leroy Higgins (“Higgins”) engaged in a fraudulent and deceptive scheme (the “Scheme”) in connection with the purchase and sale of precious metals.

4. Therefore, there is good cause to believe that Defendants have engaged in, are engaging in, or are about to engage in acts and practices in violation 7 U.S.C. § 9(1) and 17 C.F.R. § 180.1(a)(1)-(3) (2021).

5. There is also good cause to believe that immediate and irreparable damage to the Court’s ability to grant effective final relief for customers and clients of Defendants in the form of monetary or other redress will occur through the withdrawal, transfer, removal, dissipation or other disposition of funds, assets or other property and/or the destruction, alteration or disposition of books and records and other documents by Defendants, unless Defendants are immediately restrained and enjoined by Order of the Court.

6. Therefore, there is good cause for the Court to freeze assets owned, controlled, managed or held by Defendants or affiliates and subsidiaries that are owned or controlled by Defendants, or assets in which Defendants have any beneficial interest.

7. There is also good cause for the Court to prohibit Defendants from destroying, altering or disposing of records, and/or denying representatives of the Commission access to inspect records, when and as requested, to ensure that Commission representatives have immediate and complete access to those records.

8. There is also good cause for the appointment of a Temporary Receiver to take control of all assets owned, controlled, managed or held by Defendants or affiliates and subsidiaries that are owned or controlled by Defendants, or assets in which Defendants have any beneficial interest (“Defendants’ Assets”), so that the Temporary Receiver may preserve assets, investigate and determine customer and client claims, determine unlawful proceeds retained by Defendants and amounts due to customers and clients as a results of Defendants’ alleged violations, and distribute remaining funds under the Court’s supervision.

9. There is also good cause to require an accounting by Defendants to the Temporary Receiver to determine the location and disposition of customer and client funds and ill-gotten gains.

10. There is also good cause to order repatriation of assets controlled by Defendants so that such assets can be controlled by the Temporary Receiver and to assure payment of restitution and disgorgement as authorized by the Court.

11. There is also good cause to remove the prohibition on early discovery to enable the Commission to determine the full extent of Defendants’ wrongdoing (including, but not limited to, the possible involvement of others); to locate other aggrieved customers and clients; to identify and assess Defendants’ entitlement to funds, assets and other property; and to clarify the sources of funds, assets, and other property in advance of a hearing to show cause as to why a preliminary injunction should not issue.

12. In summary, this is a proper case for granting a restraining order ex parte freezing assets, allowing inspection of records, appointing a temporary receiver, and granting expedited discovery because the Commission is likely to succeed on the merits. Moreover, there is a reasonable likelihood that Defendants will transfer or dissipate assets or destroy or alter records. Therefore, the Court orders the following.

DEFINITIONS

13. For the purposes of this Order, the following definitions apply:

14. The term “assets” encompasses any legal or equitable interest in, right to, or claim to, any real or personal property, whether individually or jointly, directly or indirectly controlled, and wherever located, including but not limited to: chattels, goods, instruments, equipment, fixtures, general intangibles, effects, leaseholds, mail or other deliveries, inventory, checks, notes, accounts (including, but not limited to, bank accounts and accounts at other financial institutions), credits, receivables, lines of credit, contracts (including spot, futures, options, or swaps contracts), insurance policies, and all funds, wherever located, whether in the United States or outside the United States.

15. The term “records” encompasses “documents” and “electronically stored information” as those terms are used in Fed. R. Civ. P. 34(a), and includes, but is not limited to, all writings, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, sound recordings, images, and other data or other data compilations—stored in any medium from which information can be obtained or translated, if necessary, into reasonably usable form. The term “records” also refers to each and every such item in Defendants’ actual or constructive possession, including but not limited to: (i) all such items within the custody or control of any agents, employers, employees, or partners of the Defendants and; and (ii) all items which Defendants have a legal or equitable right to obtain from another person. A draft or non-identical copy is a separate item within the meaning of the term. A record also includes the file and folder tabs associated with each original and copy.

16. "Defendants" means and refers to Robert Leroy Higgins; First State Depository Company, LLC; and Argent Asset Group LLC.

RELIEF GRANTED

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

I. Asset Freeze Order Prohibiting the Withdrawal, Transfer, Removal, Dissipation, and Disposal of Assets

17. Defendants are immediately restrained and enjoined, except as otherwise ordered by this Court, from directly or indirectly withdrawing, transferring, removing, dissipating or otherwise disposing of any assets, wherever located, including Defendants' assets held outside the United States, except as provided otherwise in Sections IV, V, and VI of this Order, or as otherwise ordered by the Court;

18. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section I, at the request of the Temporary Receiver, Defendants and any other person who has possession, custody, or control of any of Defendants' funds, assets, or property shall transfer possession of all assets subject to this Order to the Temporary Receiver in accordance with Section IV, V, and VI of this Order.

19. The assets affected by this Order shall include existing assets and assets acquired after the effective date of this Order.

II. Maintenance of and Access to All Records Relating to the Business Activities and Business and Personal Finances

20. Defendants are restrained from directly or indirectly destroying, altering, or disposing of, in any manner any records that relate or refer to the business activities or business or personal finances of any Defendants.

21. Representatives of the Commission shall be immediately allowed to inspect any records that, in part or in whole, contain, relate, or refer to the business activities or business or personal finances of the Defendants, including, but not limited to, both hard-copy documents and electronically stored information, wherever they may be situated and whether they are in the possession of the Defendants or others. To ensure preservation and facilitate meaningful inspection and review of these records, Defendants shall allow representatives of the Commission to make copies of these records, including complete forensic images of any devices containing any such records, and if on-site copying of these records and/or forensic imaging of these devices is not practicable, representatives may make such copies and/or forensic images off-site. After any such off-site copying and/or forensic imaging, Plaintiff shall promptly return the original documents and devices upon which electronic information is stored.

22. To further facilitate meaningful inspection and review, Defendants shall, absent a valid assertion of their respective rights against self-incrimination under the Fifth Amendment, promptly provide Commission staff with:

- a. the location of all records relating or referring to the business activities and business and personal finances of the Defendants;
- b. all identification numbers and other identifying information for websites, cloud storage services, email and smartphone accounts, online chat and messaging services, and all accounts at any bank, financial institution, brokerage firm, metals trading firm, precious metals dealer, or depository (including any introducing broker or futures commission merchant) owned, controlled or operated by Defendants; owned, controlled or operated by subsidiaries owned or controlled by Defendants; or to which the Defendants have access; or in which Defendants have a beneficial interest; and

- c. all passwords to, and the location, make and model of, all computers and/or mobile electronic devices owned and/or used by Defendants in connection with their business activities and business and personal finances.

23. When inspecting and reviewing records and/or contents of forensic images that are subject to this Order, including those contained on computers and/or other devices, the Commission should undertake reasonable measures to prevent review of the Defendants' privileged communications and/or other nonbusiness, nonfinancial materials by the Commission's attorneys and other staff who are part of the litigation team in this matter. Moreover, Defendants (or their counsel) shall promptly contact Plaintiff's counsel to assert any claims of privilege or other legal objections relating to the inspection and review of any records or contents of forensic images that are subject to this Order and promptly cooperate with Plaintiff's counsel to develop reasonable protocols to isolate and prevent disclosure of claimed privileged and/or other nonbusiness, nonfinancial materials to the Commission's attorneys and other staff who are part of the litigation team in this matter. However, nothing in this paragraph shall excuse Defendants from full and immediate compliance with this Court's Order permitting Plaintiff to inspect and review the records and contents of forensic images which relate to Defendants' business activities and their business and personal finances.

III. Notice to Financial Institutions and Others that Hold or Control Assets or Records

24. To ensure the effectiveness of the asset freeze and pending further order of this Court, any financial or brokerage institution, business entity, or person that receives actual notice of this Order and holds, controls, or maintains custody of any account or asset or other property of Defendants shall not, in active concert or participation with Defendants, permit Defendants or other persons to withdraw, transfer, remove, dissipate, or otherwise dispose of any of Defendants' assets, except as directed by further order of the Court.

25. Any financial or brokerage institution, business entity, or person that receives notice of this Order by personal service or otherwise shall not, in active concert or participation with any Defendant, directly or indirectly destroy, alter, or dispose of, in any manner, any records relating to the business activities and business and personal finances of any Defendant.

As an alternative to allowing inspection of records, a financial or brokerage institution, business entity or other person may provide copies of records requested by the Commission.

27. Furthermore, any such financial or brokerage institution, business entity, or person that receives actual notice of this Order shall:

- a. Within ten business days of a request by the Temporary Receiver, or such longer period specified by the Temporary Receiver, provide the Temporary

Receiver with copies of all records pertaining to any account or asset owned, controlled, managed, or held by, on behalf of, or for the benefit of Defendants, either individually or jointly, including, but not limited to, originals or copies of account applications, account statements, signature cards, checks, drafts, deposit tickets, transfers to and from the accounts, all other debit and credit instruments or slips, currency transaction reports, 1099 forms, and safe deposit box logs; and
